

Introducing...LDRL Book Boxes!

Submitted by: Rachael Grime, Director of Little Dixie Regional Libraries

Have you ever wanted to stop by the library and didn't have enough time to look? Knowing you need a new title by your bedside but the library isn't open? Or you have little ones screaming but no way to checkout that new mystery?

Little Dixie Regional Libraries has just the solution. Introducing... LDRL Book Boxes!

Check out the library's form of a FREE subscription box.

Trained librarians will hand pick books for you from the library collection based on your wants and needs. Materials will be selected based off of what you like and items will be pulled for pickup on the first week of each and every month. Patrons are able to check out books, audiobooks on CD, large print materials, and graphic novels.

Patrons will receive an email when your book box is ready to be picked up, along with library news, library swag, and maybe a sweet treat or two.

Library materials are due back the following month by the first Friday, but patrons are encouraged to log onto their online account to renew any books they haven't finished reading yet (as long as they don't have a hold by another patron).

LDRL Book Boxes will be available the first week of every month for pickup. Easy, simple, and catered to you and your reading tastes.

Businesses within the city limits of Moberly who have two or more employees interested in receiving BookBoxes can request delivery of materials instead of pickup by contacting the library.

Subscription boxes have gained in popularity due to patron interest and allow patrons to sample a wide range of new books and authors who may interest them. Each month will be a surprise while also a convenient way to enjoy the library and library books new to you.

Patrons, who have active library cards and are interested in the service, can sign up for this personalized experience at the Moberly Library or online at www.ldrl.org/bookbox ###
